FOREWORD

The 1967 OWL is your yearbook. It recalls the past—the duties, the problems, and especially the fun of this last year. To some it will bring a smile, to others a wistful longing to return. But yet still another reflection is evident in the OWL. It is a glimpse into the future, a progressive look into our lives-to-be, our ambitions, our desires, and our ultimate goals. The recounts given here mirror the life patterns we will follow in years to come. Thus, the OWL represents our own gentle knock on the "Doors to the Future."

THOMAS J. MILANO

Mr. Milano was born in Philadelphia and attended Philadelphia schools. After graduation from the Pennsylvania State University, where he majored in mathematics, Mr. Milano came to Bensalem in the fall of 1963 as a teacher in the Mathematics Department.

At the present time, he is serving as chairman of the Mathematics Department as well as, the Senior Class advisor. In addition to his interests in education, Mr. Milano also likes to play tennis and chess, attend the theatre, and travel abroad.

For his friendship and hard work, the OWL is dedicated to Mr. Thomas Milano with best wishes for years to come from the Class of 1967.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

The administration and faculty have worked both individually and cooperatively to open doors for their students. They have accepted their responsibilities and have seen their students to the door. Their work with the Class of 1967 is finished; the graduates must rely on their experience and learning as they pass through the door into a new world.

In the biggest industry of Bensalem Township, its school district, there is a group of nine individuals who are elected by the Bensalem Township voters. These people look after the business affairs of the school system, making many important decisions along the way.

One of their most recent decisions was that of building a new high school to accommodate Bensalem's inceasing population. The new school, to open in 1969, will be the largest to be constructed in our area's history. Housing the eleventh and twelfth grades; it will have the best in modern facilities and, most important, space. One aspect of this space is the auditorium designed to seat two thousand people. Another outstanding feature of the proposed structure is a swimming pool. We are looking to the vast improvement rendered by such a high school in the rapidly expanding Bensalem Township.

A Message From

Class of 1967:

To date you have spent most of your lives learning the techniques of opening the doors that might bar your passage into the future. Your parents, teachers, friends, and many other people have taught you all the techniques you know to this point. They have given you careful direction and guidance. They have made every effort to give you and have you understand the fundamental principles of opening the doors that might bar your progress in the days and years ahead.

Tomorrow you will stand at the first door. More than likely you will be alone, for your teachers, friends, and possibly even your parents will be far removed. There may be no one about to identify the proper key and help you lift the latch. The techniques you have learned and their application, tempered by your own good judgment, will have to stand you in good stead or you will be unable to recognize the opportunity much less make the most of it.

The future is long, and the doors and opportunities will be many. Approach each with courage and confidence, and with all the knowledge and skill you can muster. Knock resoundingly and walk into a joyous happy future.

Robert K. Shafer

A Message From

THOMAS H. RAMSAY
Principal

High school commencement exercises are long remembered by members of graduating classes as emotion-filled experiences which concluded twelve years of formal schooling and severed close associations with the school faculty and other students. Viewed in proper retrospect, however, commencement should be noted as the beginning of a new and highly complex way of life for the graduates.

The period of adjustment which follows commencement—when life takes on a new perspective—is one of the most crucial in the lifetime of an individual.

As graduates, you will find yourselves on the threshold of decision. You will have to make judgments which will influence not only your immediate future but affect your well-being in the years ahead. Your ability to open, or cause to be opened, the doorways to the future which will guarantee opportunity, success and happiness will be dependent upon many factors. Not the least of these are the attention that you have given to your education and the development of an attitude of self discipline.

Most of you will be successful and happy in your lifetime because you have worked for an education. All of you will be knocked down occasionally in your attempt to reach various levels of success. Those who have learned, through hard work and sacrifice, to bounce back quickly will take advantage of opportunities and be very successful and happy in their chosen field. Others will have to learn the meaning of hard work and sacrifice.

As a class, you have been an asset to your school and your community. As individuals most of you have contributed, uniquely, to the programs of the schools. We will miss you.

The best of luck to all of you in the years ahead. May you all find the success and happiness you seek.

Thomas H. Ramsay

A Message From

The doors to the future will open for you if and only if you provide the necessary push to actuate the mechanisms.

The mechanisms that must be activated are study, quest of knowledge, perseverance, motivation and drive. Only you can provide the necessary push to "open the doors." Your experiences here at Bensalem have given you the tools to provide the push. Your years of study and attention in class will now begin to pay dividends for you.

But this is only the beginning. You are about to enter the most important phase of your life. I sincerely hope that you will use the means that Bensalem High School has provided for you to do the task you are setting out to do. May I wish each of you success, health, and happiness in the years to come.

Mathematics

Math has often been said to be "the perfect science." Every postulate, axiom, and theorum fits into a neat pattern of calculations and solutions. Beginning with Algebra I, a student gradually builds his skills and continues with Geometry, Algebra II, and Academic or Advanced Math. Those who wish to further their study may enroll in the Introductory Calculus course. The best way to develop logical reasoning is to have a good background in mathematics.

Science

Through science, the world discovers its past, present, and the makings of the future. Chemistry teaches us about the materials of which this globe is made. Physics describes how the world goes round in a rather difficult language. Through Biology, we discover the microbe and bacteria which we never realized existed. Earth Science and General Science explain the various physical aspects of our world and depict the events, conditions, and reasons as they happen. We often find the science labs just as busy after school as during school, because some experiments never seem to work out correctly.

Business Education

The business rooms in Bensalem are easily located by following the steady taps of the typewriter keys. In these rooms all types of mimeographing machines are stored and used diligently but somewhat confusedly by our commercial students. They study courses in typing, stenography, bookkeeping, and business math. When they graduate, they are truly ready for life in the business world.

Physical Education

The best place to release all those inner tensions created by not doing homework or arguing with a friend is the gym. Well-rounded courses in hockey, soccer, football, basketball, track, volleyball, and dressing quickly are given with expert ability. Safety Education

The best place to learn about reaction time, brakes, and pistons is the Safety Education Classes. Courses in fire prevention and the techniques of artificial respiration, which are necessary in everyone's life, are taught and drilled upon until everyone knows how to spell words like resuscitation and pyromanic. Students seem most anxious about Driver Education which is an excellent course to take if your mother has run into the garage three times.

Special Services

The Special Services staff includes a nurse who is always helpful and sympathetic, greeting each ailing student with a warm and friendly smile. She does as much as possible to help keep each student feeling well.

The Special Education Department requires a keen mind and understanding but a firm heart, a strong hand, and an abundance of willpower to work with students training for general occupations.

Keeping the library stocked with the latest books, keeping the old books in order, guiding student assistants, and running a modern, efficient library is the responsibility of our school librarian.

SENIORS

Those of the graduating class of 1967 are standing before a multitude of doorways opened to them. Each graduating student must decide for himself through which doorway he should pass. He must find within himself the initiative to step forward and discover the life he has chosen to lead.

A Message From

Fellow Classmates of the Class of 1967:

With diploma in hand and commencement another rich memory, we have but to set our goals to enjoy the fulfillment of our training.

Our high school years are filled with fond memories and cherished friends, never to be forgotten. With the help of the faculty, we have achieved the knowledge necessary to meet whatever challenges that may come our way.

I wish to thank the faculty, the officers of the Senior Class, and above all, the entire Class of 1967 for allowing me the honor of serving as their president. The generous co-operation of all has made ours one of the most successful classes at Bensalem.

I wish to extend my sincere best wishes for the continued success and happiness of each member of the Class of 1967.

Sincerely,
Cheryl A. Harland, President

You Can't Take It With You

Oh, Tony!

Dance gracefully, Essie.

Like this, Mr. Kolenkhov?

Pay or Else!!!

The Senior Class Play, "You Can't Take It With You," was presented on November 17 and 18, 1966 under the direction of Mr. Axel Kleinsorg. The enthusiastic audience filled the auditorium to see the comedy.

Thanks to the efforts of Mr. Kleinsorg, the cast, the seniors, and the administration, which cooperated so willingly, the play was a great success and will set a high standard for all classes to follow.

This is how we do it in Russia!

If dinner isn't too much trouble, we'll be glad to stay.

ATHLETICS

Those who have participated in athletic activities have found it necessary to acquire self-discipline and the team spirit which enables them to get along well with those with whom they must work. The acquisition of these traits is compulsory not only for those participating in sports, but also for those who will further their educations or enter the business world. Engaging in athletic activities helps us open the doorways to the future.

Football

When a boy's picture appears here among the Bensalem's football team, you can be sure he has spent many hours in practicing and playing for the glory of Bensalem.

The team had a tough eleven game schedule, with each non-sectional game played against bigger opponents. No matter how great the odds, or how tough the going, no one ever gave up. The team demonstrated excellent school spirit on the practice field as well as the game field, performing well under task-masters Mr. Shaup, Mr. Bielski, Mr. Knepper, and Mr. Dampman.

This year the team finished third in Section II, being beaten only by Lower Moreland and Council Rock. Mike Hoagland, Joe Jaglowski, Ron Cianni, and Paul Bowens were selected All-Section II gridders.

Congratulations are in order for all the players who helped make this year a success for the Bensalem football team.

Hockey

The hockey team tried their best this year to win; but although they fought hard to attain a victory, they were not very successful in doing so.

Bensalem's Owlettes were constantly in the opponent's striking circle, but were able to score only two goals.

Six of this year's team will be graduating; they are Sandy Crowder, (Captain), Lyn Johnson, Linda Schramm, Trudy Weber, Carole Wurst, and Marie Vitucci.

To next year's Owlettes, each Senior leaves behind them their good wishes to the future hockey teams of B.H.S.

One word can best describe this year's Owl Cross Country Team—exciting. Although expected to have a mediocre year, the surprising Harriers led by captains Jim Ellis and Larry Meggett won seven of eight meets. The efforts of several boys deserve recognition. Co-captains Meggett and Ellis plus underclassmen Jim Allahand, Raleigh Coates, and Billy Ellis—these five runners plus seniors Clarence Dickerson, Bruce Williams, and Charles Winther enabled the Owls to achieve much success.

This year, Sophomore Jim Allahand set a new home course record and set new records on other courses during the year. The Owls deserve special commendation for winning all their meets except traditional rival Wm. Tennent. This year, the young Owls came within 3 points of going undefeated, losing to Tennent 25-22.

With many underclassmen returning, the Owls should be as equally successful next year.

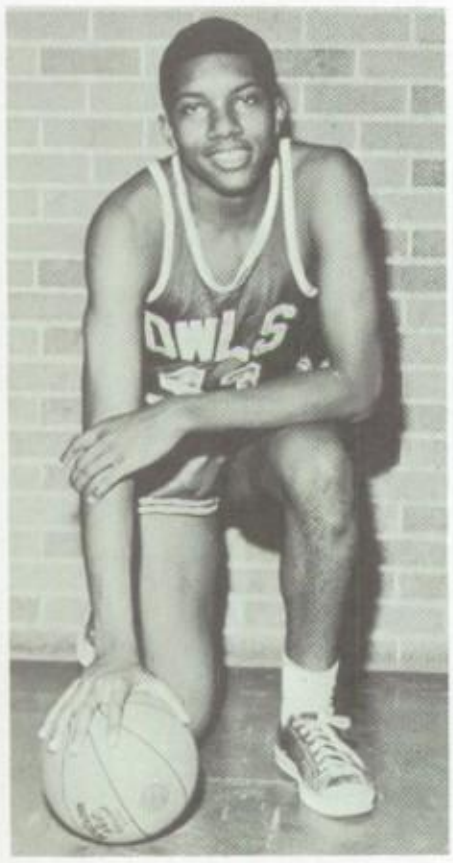
Boys' Basketball



Greg Williams

Enthusiasm from our players and student body continues to grow in our basketball program even though we have not seen the results, as yet, in the win-lose column.

At all home games you could see our aggressive "Owls" working hard while our cheerleaders and pep band were generating the enthusiasm.

Lack of experience has plagued our performance despite our spurts of excellent play.

Led by Coach Carl Martin, the Owl Cagers compiled a league record of 2-16. The Owls at times, however, were much more impressive than their record might indicate. In their initial encounter with League-leading Neshaminy, the Owls played exceptionally well, only to be defeated in the closing minutes of the game.

Our very promising Junior Varsity basketball team, under the leadership of Coach Larry Breiner, joined the winning ranks and compiled a league record of 10-8. These J.V. players will be a great asset to the Owl Varsity next year.

We bestow the "laurels" on the Owl Cagers and wish them the best of luck and success in the future.

Girls' Basketball

February brought to a close what seemed to be a disappointing basketball season. After coming close to winning the championship and finally placing second among the other teams in Lower Bucks County in 1966, the Owlettes graciously but sorrowfully bowed to defeat.

Inexperience hampered the Owlettes during the '67 season, and the coaches, Mrs. Muller and Miss Harmonis, were forced to mold a team with fresh, young talent, relying heavily upon a few experienced players. The returning Varsity players included: Sandy Crowder, Terri Habercorn, Carol Seward, Linda Bussey and Nancy Livesay.

Nancy Livesay was named Top Scorer for the Lower Bucks League, sharing her 131 point record with another girl.

Despite their poor season, they learned the valuable victory of accepting defeat. Next year, with the school behind them and the coaches pushing them, the Bensalem Owlettes will work hard to get on the winning road.

Wrestling

Although it was a poor year for Coach Moores' grapplers—an overall team record of 2-12—it was a fine year for individual achievement. Many upsets occurred in the lightweights, while there were a number of forfeits in the heavyweights, that made close matches or big leads into defeats.

Even though it wasn't a winning year, three boys—John Scotton, Frank Yaeger, and Paul Bowens—wrestled in the final matches at the Sectional Championships. Honorable mention also goes to Larry Scotton, Steve Smolenak, and Bob Beerhalter who were defeated in the semi-final matches.

Mr. Moore is looking forward to the return of almost all the lightweights next year. Among seniors leaving the team are: John Scotton, Gary Jackson, Charles Winther, Bill Stinger, and Paul Bowens.

Under the able guidance of the coaches—Mr. Murdock and Mr. Bielski the Owl Winter Thinclads had a promising season. Competing with teams from the Delaware Valley our team did very well. In their winter warmup for the Spring season, Larry Megget, Jim Ellis, Jim Allahand, Leonard Bennet, and Rich Fiorentino had excellent individual seasonal records. Of the five boys mentioned above only two, Megget and Fiorentino are seniors. With a number of underclassmen returning to next year's winter track team, the season should be equally successful.

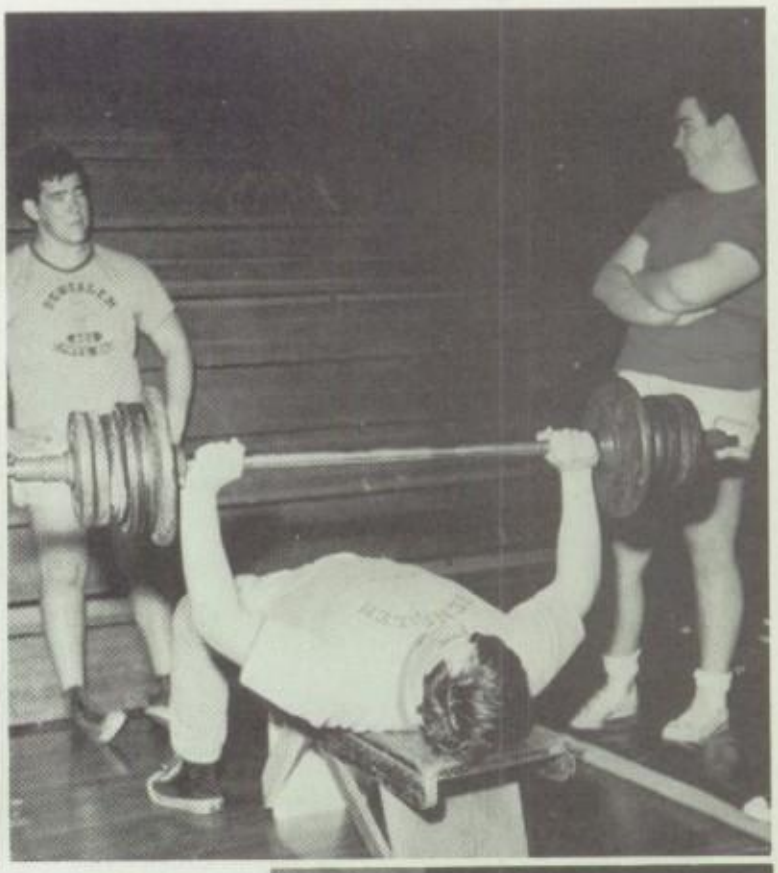
Swimming

Robert Birnbrauer
1967 P.I.A.A. 100-yd. freestyle champion

Bensalem's only State Champion, Bob Birnbrauer, retained his title again in March. After winning the 1966 50-yard freestyle, he moved up to the 100-yard event and set a state record of 48.00 seconds. He entered the 200-yard freestyle and finished second, losing by less than a second, but bettering the old record by two seconds.

After winning several other area titles, he was on his way to the state crown. He won the Lower Bucks County titles in the 100 and 200-yard freestyles in record time, then won the District One and Regional events. Bob, who swims competitively for the Philadelphia Aquatic Club, is the national age group champion in the 100-yard freestyle. At the state meet, Bob was the only boy representing a high school without a swimming pool or team.

Bensalem wishes him much success in his future swimming career.

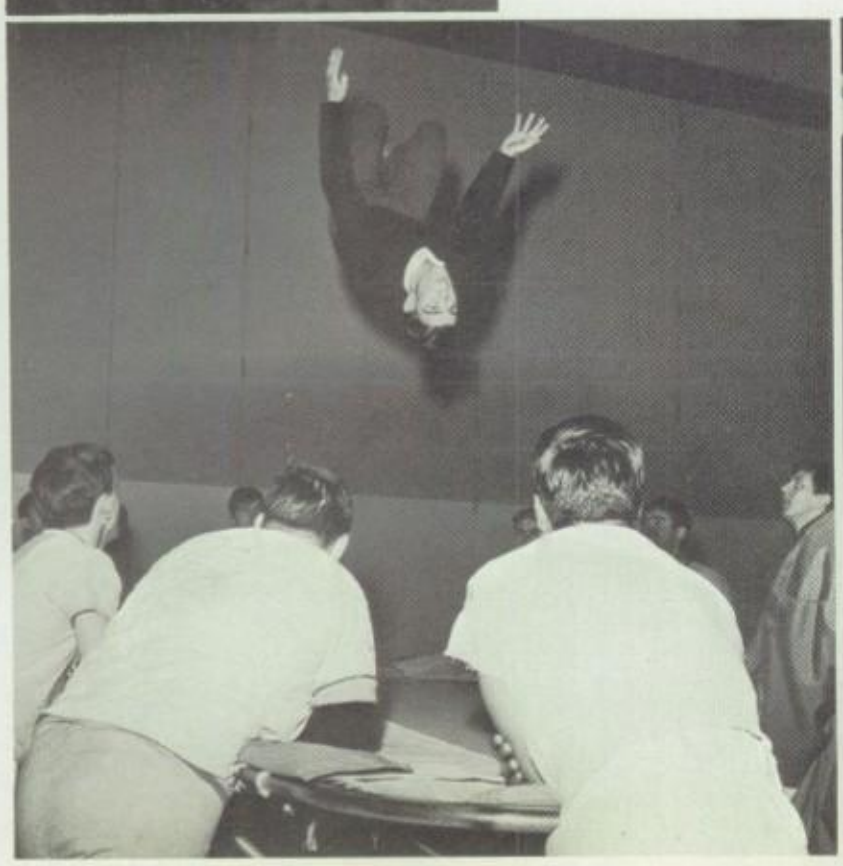


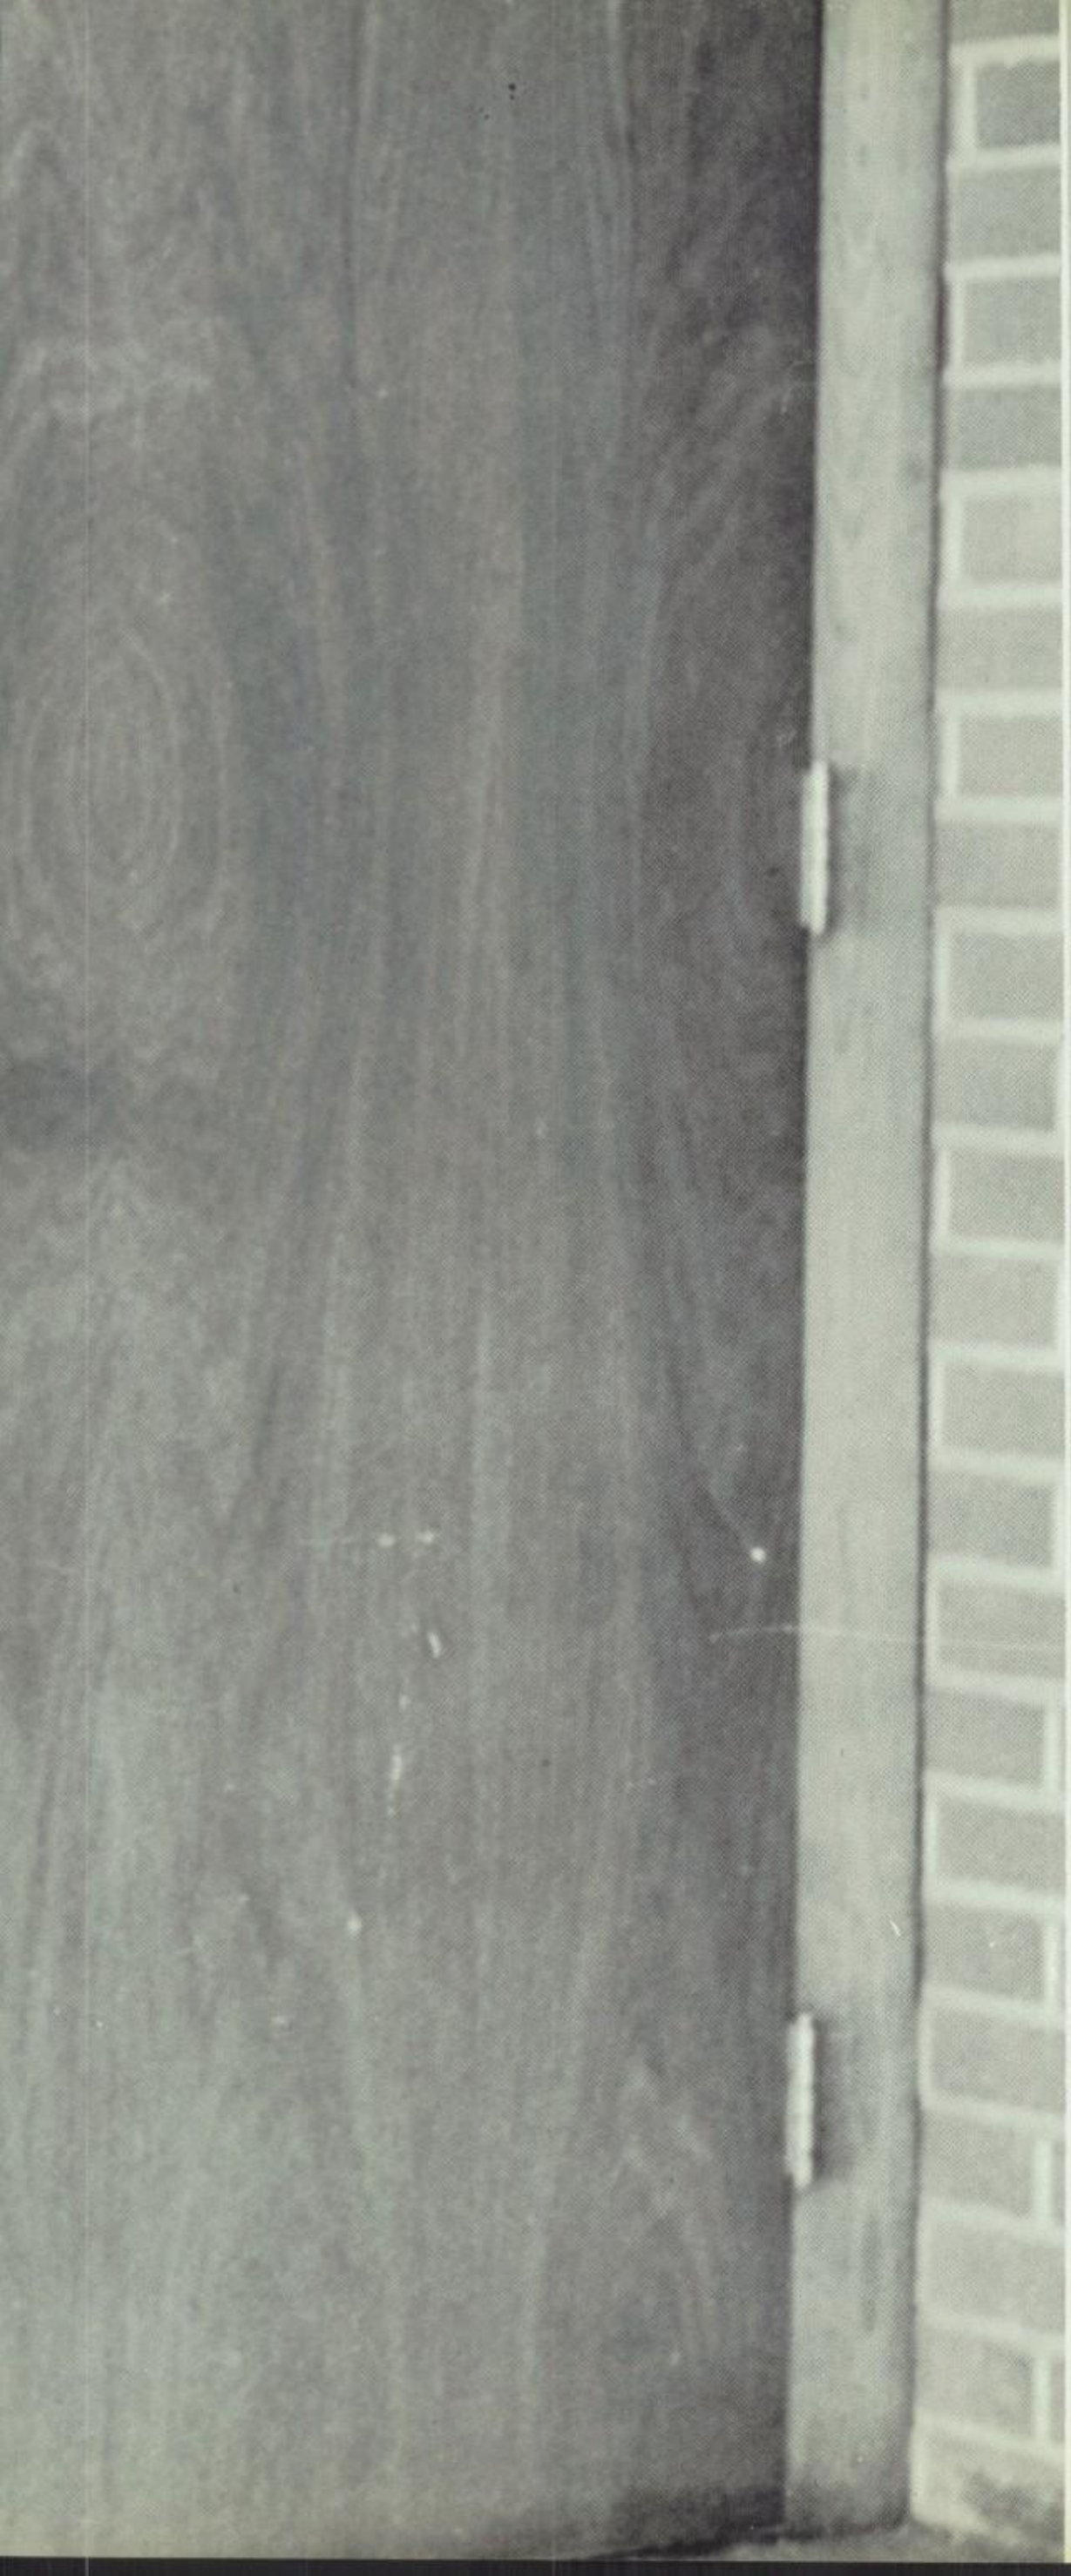
Weight Lifting

For those athletes who wish to keep in shape during the off season, supervised weight lifting activities are available. The boys are expected to lift weights regularly and to exercise properly. Weight training is an early beginning to the rigorous routine of sports. By lifting weights and keeping in shape, practice is made much easier.

At Bensalem, athletics are no longer three month sports, but rather year around activities.

Supervision was provided by the football coaching staff.





ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Participating in extracurricular activities enables a student to develop many facets of his personality. In addition to learning to cooperate with peers, one has the opportunity to put leadership and creativity into practice. These abilities will open the doors to many kinds of success.

Bob Novella and Mr. Tregellas discuss plans for a Junior Class activity.

Class of '68

The Junior Class elected Robert Novella as their President. Diane Deans was elected as Vice President, Linda Price, as Secretary, and Pat Harrigan, as Treasurer.

The showing of a recent movie was the first money-making endeavor for the Junior Class.

The Junior Class officers next guided their class through a successful Junior Spaghetti Dinner. Many people attended this dinner which was held on November 19, after the Jenkintown football game.

The class's sponsor is Mr. Tregellas, to whom all those who attended would like to extend their gratitude. It was a most enjoyable evening, and we hope the Junior Class continues to provide us with many more.

The year just wouldn't be complete without a Junior Class Breakfast. On April 5, the Juniors presented the Senior Class with a breakfast before the Seniors left for the Washington Trip. This breakfast has become a tradition at Bensalem. All the tasty treats were served quickly and gracefully by the class waitresses. Boys of the Junior Class helped by cooking the meal, as well as making cafeteria preparations beforehand.

The Junior Class, with the help of class officers, has made the Class of 1968 one of Bensalem's best.

Spaghetti Dinner

On Saturday, November 19, 1966, the Junior Class held its Spaghetti Dinner—its second activity of the year. All the things that were needed for the dinner—spaghetti, coffee, cheese, napkins, etc.—were provided by the class members.

The Class of '68 contributed much time and effort to make their dinner a success.

Everyone waits patiently to be served.

Class of '69

The Class of 1969 has undertaken the challenge to become one of the most active Classes in Bensalem's history. This energetic class has shown how ambitious it is through its extremely successful Valentine's Day Dance on February 11, and the Spring Car Wash held on May 13 and 14. Though every member of the class of 1969 has put forth a great effort so the class projects would be successful, their success may partially be due to their competent adviser, Mr. Long.

This year's graduating class, the Class of 1967, encourages the Class of 1969, to add other success to your already overwhelming glories and to prove to outsiders that Bensalem is the best.

Cheerleaders

N. Murphy, (Captain); T. Murphy; D. Polliotto; C. Kearney; B. Wesalowski; V. Harner; P. Lutz; S. Turner; L. Erbrick; P. Middleton.

This year's cheerleading squad was both energetic and enthusiastic. The girls worked diligently at practices during the summer and after school. The varsity, under the direction of Mrs. Vivacqua and Miss Baus, placed third in the Eastern Scholastic Competition held at Bristol High School.

By selling buttons and helping the pep club make posters, the cheerleaders did much to boost morale.

The cheerleaders divided their squad to support their teams during the three Blue and Gray Nights.

The seven girls who are graduating this year wish success to those girls who will wear the uniforms of the varsity and junior varsity next year.

Pep Club

Pep, defined in Webster's dictionary as energy and vigor, is the basic fundamental of the Pep Club.

Its principle function is to promote and contribute school spirit. Under the supervision of Miss Forti, the members are always busy making signs and posters for athletic contests.

During the basketball season, one of the Pep Club's biggest projects is to sell booklets containing pictures of basketball players in the Lower Bucks area and their respective high schools.

One does not have to be an artist to join the Pep Club, but should enjoy working along with others. The Pep Club is just one of an after-school extra-curricular organization that is always seeking members and open for membership.

Tri-Hi-Y

One club in Bensalem which has done much this year in helping other people, is the Tri-Hi-Y. This is an organization whose main purposes are to create, maintain, and extend everywhere the high standard of Christian character.

The club supported such projects as: collecting Christmas gifts for needy families, sending cards and little presents to our soldiers over in Viet Nam, and visiting the Byberry and Eastern State Hospitals.

Out of the forty members of the club, all of them worked very hard this year; and Bensalem is proud to have the Tri-Hi-Y among its many clubs.

National Honor Society

Cheryl Hughes, President; Miss Heider, Advisor; Linda Price, Secretary, (Absent: Sue Turner, Vice President)

The twentieth century has seen many significant developments in the secondary school. Among these has been a growth in the student's tendency to seek achievement in sports, music, or some other activity. The emphasis had turned away from the honor associated with the student's academic life. Educators searched for a new means of promoting excellence in scholarship. There soon came into existence a number of organizations whose membership would be formed by students excelling not only in character, leadership, and service, but also in scholarship.

Such an organization is the National Honor Society, established locally at Bensalem Township Senior High School. It is considered an honor to be chosen by the faculty for such a position. The student selected must pass rigid standards of scholarship, activitiy, ability in leadership, and character.

This year, under the guidance of Miss Heider, our National Honor Society has worked on various projects concerning community welfare.

There is much pride in belonging to the National Honor Society, but the right to this pride must be earned by the fully-developed student who is ready to face the world.

Student Council

Under the leadership of President Arlene Jackson and Co-advisors Miss Kochis and Mr. Aiken, Student Council was one of the most active and successful organizations in Bensalem.

Council members were chosen differently this year. Candidates had to raise a petition and then be voted upon by the student body.

The activities that occurred included a Fall Festival, Bon Fire, Parents' Day, Blue-Gray, an assembly for the Student Teachers, and the All-School Review.

The 1966-1967 Student Council has provided working relationship between the faculty and the student body and maintained the spirit of enthusiasm which made this year a successful one for Bensalem students.

Library and Attendance Aides

.Student aids help with clerical work of the library and the attendance office. During many of the study halls, one will see them work on a voluntary basis. The aids are there to do small tasks which will help to ease the pressures of the day. They are all willing to help anyone who needs assistance with a smile.

Mr. Milano and Mrs. DeBernardo plan the strategy for the next meeting.

Mathletes

When one thinks of sports, he thinks of the physical exercises such as football, basketball, or baseball. However, mental exercise is necessary in developing the ability to reason logically and to solve problems. The "sport" founded for such a purpose is the Mathletes League. Bensalem is one of nine schools participating in the Bucks County Interscholastic Mathematics League.

Each team arrives on the afternoon scheduled for the event and makes ready to do their best. The playing team consists of the best performing students, who may be relieved by any one of several reserve members after a problem has been completed. There are five problems per game, and the time allowed for each problem is five minutes. The problems range from graphing difficult sets of inequalities and equalities to determining the number of members in a geometric progression. After the game has been completed, the scores are tabulated for all to see. Under the direction of Mr. Milano, who is assisted by Mrs. DeBernardo, the Mathletes program has become a clever way to combine competition with mathematical know-how.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers Club offers, to those who are interested in the teaching profession, a chance to explore the opportunities and requirements of this field.

Interested F.T.A. members visited the campuses of West Chester State College and Temple University to explore their teaching programs.

These members also participated in a teacher aid program in our high school. They were also privileged to practice teaching at the Snyder Junior High and the Benjamin Rush Elementary School. This awarded the participating members much invaluable experience.

Members of F.T.A. also hosted a tea for the student teachers from Bloomsburg this year, thus welcoming them to our school.

This year F.T.A. boasted the largest membership in the history of our school. We hope that it will grow even more, as it tries to explore, even more thoroughly, the wonders of teaching.

The Future Nurses Club's purpose is to promote better understanding of health careers and to aid in each interested student's selection of the related health career which best suits her personally.

In order to achieve this, this year the club members went on two field trips: to Temple University Hospital, and to Helene Fuld Hospital. They also had various speakers, including a physical therapist, a student nurse, a graduate nurse, and an Army nurse.

The club members were active throughout the year with fund-raising activities in order to provide a nursing scholarship, which is awarded annually. National Hospitals and Nursing Week was observed with the traditional Nurses Club Tea, and with the wearing of uniforms of student nurses from various schools.

One of Bensalem's newest additions to the 1966-1967 school term was the Drill Team formed under the motivation and initiative of Arlene Jackson. With very little to go on, the members of the Drill Team, under the supervision of Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Hoover, were able to function as a group.

Having no funds, the girls decided amoung themselves to furnish their own money to buy material and make their own outfits. Under the supervision of Diane Copestakes, an honorary member, they were able to create a suitable marching apparel.

The function of the Drill Team was to highlight and entertain during halftime at the football games. Each week they presented a different routine for the benefit of spectators.

Officers for this school year were: Arlene Jackson, Captain; Cheryl Hughes and Doreen Lynn, Co-Captains. Members of the Drill Team were girls from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade. Accepting both favorable and unfavorable praise, the girls always possessed determination to do better and never gave up when under pressure.

Hard work, and sacrifice on the part of the members, were factors which make a successful organization. In years to come we hope to have one of the best in the Lower Bucks area.

Band

Bensalem's band had a new director this year, Mr. David Sperling. He has worked especially hard with his students, putting forth much time and energy, producing one of Bensalem's best bands.

The band members swelled with new pride this fall. Their music sounded loud and clear across the football stands as they marched into the bright sunshine or stadium lights, sparkling in their new silver and blue cadet uniforms. These new uniforms performed their second major duty at concert time when they converted into handsome blue tuxedoes.

Another new addition to the school this year was the initiation of a Stage Band. Mr. Sperling has brought jazz into the stage of Bensalem. The band entertained at two concerts during the year and comments were made by those who attended indicating the growth and respect for our band.

"Singing to thee, dear Bensalem . . .," the choir and chorus have been even busier than usual this year. Under the direction of Mr. Donald Thullen, the combined groups gave several highly successful performances, including: the Christmas concert, Wolcum Yole, the taping of a Christmas broadcast for a local radio station, and the Spring concert. The choir also sang at an Easter morning sunrise service and an exchange assembly with Council Rock.

Many members of our choir brought added glory to BHS—in District Chorus, Larry Dahl, George Darby, John Landis, Doreen Lynn, and Harvey Miller; in County Chorus, Alan Blackburn, Joseph Cherry, Larry Dahl, George Darby, Cheryl Hughes, and Sue Johnston; and in State and All-Eastern Chorus, Harvey Miller .

These early-rising (6:45 rehearsals!) hard-working groups can be proud of their efforts as they continue to sing the praises of ". . . the school we love."

ADVERTISEMENTS

Advertising represents the opening of doors in the business world. If one is to be successful in life, he must prepare himself by building a product about which he can proudly speak.

Honest salesmanship will then open the door to success.

On the football field or basketball court, teamwork is the key to success. The talent and ability of individuals may vary, but without that vital ingredient —the ability to cooperate and work together—individual abilities are meaningless.

Teamwork is also vital in any industrial enterprise. The Rohm and Haas team is made up of more than 12,000 men and women.

At the Bristol Plant some 3,000 people produce hundreds of different chemicals—enzymes for the textile, food, and tanning trades, emulsions for paints, floor polishes, textiles, and paper coatings, Plexiglas acrylic plastic sheet and molding powder, insecticides, miticides . . . the list would fill a book.

To do this a variety of skills are required. Chemists, engineers, chemical operators, accountants, typists, stenographers, pipe-fitters, mechanics, instrument men . . . there are few skills which are not represented on the Rohm and Haas team.

We hope you will consider us when your education is completed. We have a number of positions for team players.

In the future, your yearbook will bring back many memories of what you did in Bensalem. Your reward will be the continued success of the various activities in which you participated.

At this time I would like to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to the following people: to Mr. Rudy for his help and advice, and to the various editors and staffs for their loyalty and untiring efforts in sales and time devoted to readying the pages for publication.

Now that your days at Bensalem are finished, you will have to go your own way and make a sincere effort to be successful and to uphold the good name of Bensalem Township High School. Our teachers have tried to lead us to a fuller life through learning and example. They can do no more for us, for it is now up to us to open the Doors to the Future.
